NEWS AND NOTES

THE SERIES

This is the 70th meeting between Columbia and Harvard dating back to 1877. Harvard holds a 54-14-1 advantage and has a seven game winning streak vs. the Lions. The Lions' last win vs. Harvard was a 16-13 win vs. the Crimson in 2003 at Lawrence A. Wien Stadium.

BRACKETT PASSING GREATS

After he threw for a pair of scores last week vs. Yale, Sean Brackett has now thrown for 33 touchdowns in his Columbia career and ranks second in Columbia history. He trails only Columbia Athletics Hall of Famer John Witkowski who threw 56 touchdown passes from 1981-1983.

SCHUSTER'S DAY

Neil Schuster totaled nine tackles with 1.5 tackles for a loss and an impressive three pass breakups vs. Yale. Schuster now ranks fifth in the Ivy league in passes defended.

CELEBRATING THE 4TH

Columbia's defense is first in the Ivy League at regaining possession after a fourth down attempt. Columbia has stopped its opponent 11 times in 14 tries on fourth down attempts.

IN THE ZONE

The Lions have scored 11 touchdowns on 17 trips into the opponent's red zone this season. Columbia has scored a touchdown or a field goal on 76.5% of their red zone trips.

MARTIN STANDING TALL

Junior linebacker Josh Martin ranks among the Ivy League's top ten in sacks and tackles for a loss this season. Martin is fourth in the league with 4 1/2 sacks and ranks eighth in the league with six tackles for a loss.

LAST TIME OUT FOR COLUMBIA

Columbia's fourth-quarter rally came up just short against Yale in near blizzard conditions on Robert K. Kraft Field. Columbia quarterback Sean Brackett threw for two touchdowns in the 16-13 loss. The game occurred in the biggest October snowstorm to hit New York City in recorded history, since those records began being kept in 1869, according to the Associated Press.

LAST TIME OUT FOR HARVARD

Harvard had three different players rush for 100 yards in a 41-10 win over Dartmouth in Cambridge.

A.J. IS A.O.K.

Senior defensive back A.J. Maddox has had a nose for the football this season. He has returned an interception for a touchdown and ranks first among all Ivy League players in fumbles recovered.

NUMBER EIGHT IS GREAT

Kurt Williams leads the Columbia receiving corps with 27 receptions. After playing defensive back his first two seasons at Columbia, the senior wideout is averaging 51.4 yards per game, good for eighth in the Ivy League.

DELANEY PUTS BEST FOOT FORWARD

Sophomore punter Paul Delaney has solidified the punting game for the Lions this season. Delaney owns the longest punt in the Ivy League this season, a 67-yard boot. In last week's snowstorm vs. Yale, Delaney also launched a 62-yarder downfield that the Bulldogs' returner fumbled inside the five-yard line and led to Columbia's second touchdown of the fourth quarter that cut the Yale lead to 16-13.

ZACK ATTACK

Sophomore tight end Zack McKown, voted Columbia's most improved offensive player last spring, caught a 26-yard pass from Sean Brackett through the snow last week vs. Yale to get the Lions on the board. It was McKown's first career reception.

GRIFFIN GOES FORWARD

Sophomore running back Griffin Lowry saw his first action in the Lions' backfield vs. Yale and responded with 26 yards on eight carries, all during the second half. On Columbia's first scoring drive, Lowry gained 17 yards on three carries and was responsible for two first downs during that drive.

MURPHY'S LAW

Senior defensive back Mike Murphy made his first career interception in the game vs. Yale.

MIKE'D UP

Junior linebacker Mike Waller stepped into the lineup for sophomore Zach Olinger and played a key role on defense for the Lions vs. Yale. Waller made seven stops, including one for a loss of two yards.

DINOVO DOING BIG THINGS

Sophomore wide receiver Louis DiNovo has been a part of big passing plays recently for the Lions. Over the last four games, DiNovo has made five grabs that have gone for 10 or more yards.

HAMILTON HAULS IT IN

Sophomore tight end Hamilton Garner leads Columbia with four touchdown catches this season. Against Penn, Garner caught a 16-yard scoring strike to put the Lions ahead 17-10 in the third quarter. A week earlier vs. Sacred Heart, Garner made two touchdown grabs.

EDDY MONEY

Columbia sophomore kicker Luke Eddy drilled a pair of field goals in a stiff wind vs. Penn on October 15. Eddy made a 31-yarder to get the Lions on the board in the first quarter then nailed a pressure-packed, 35-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter.

HAUSCHILDT NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR NFF NATIONAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

Columbia senior football captain Bob Hauschildt was named a semifinalist for the 2011 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Awards, presented by Fidelity Investments®, a leading provider of not-for-profit workplace retirement savings plans in higher education. Last year, Hauschildt was awarded the Class of 1913 Football Cup, awarded annually to the member of the Columbia football squad, in his junior or senior season, who achieves the best scholastic average. Hauschildt is a two-year starter on the Lions' offensive line and was chosen as one of four captains prior to the start of the 2011 campaign.

HAMBLIN IS 2011 NFF NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) announced that Columbia defensive back Tyler Hamblin is one of five winners of the 2011 NFF National High School Scholar-Athlete Awards with each recipient selected as the best of the best from their region of the country at the high school level. Selected from the 400,000 high school football players covered by the NFF Chapter Network, Hamblin, who played his high school ball at Cretin-Derham in Minneapolis, Minn., is the Midwest Region winner. He will be honored for his high school accomplishments during the NFF Chapter Awards Luncheon Tuesday, December 6 at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

YOUR 2011 COLUMBIA FOOTBALL CAPTAINS

Seniors Mike Stephens, Ross Morand, Bob Hauschildt and junior Sean Brackett were elected as captains for the 2011 Columbia Football season.

2011 ANNOUNCERS ON GOCOLUMBIALIONS.COM

Catch live Columbia Football audio and video broadcasts online on gocolumbialions.com. Local New York sportscaster Jerry Recco returns for his fifth year of play-by-play on gocolumbialions.com, and is joined by SNY personality Sal Licata for the 2011 season. In 2011, audio broadcasts are also available on your Android-powered mobile device.

About Jerry Recco:

A well-known media personality within the City of New York, Jerry Recco begins his fifth year as the play-by-play announcer for Columbia Football. Recco has worked with The Flagship Station for New York Sports, WFAN 660, for the past 13 years and has covered the last six Super Bowls for the station. He has worked closely with the New York Jets and New York Giants during his tenure, and currently serves as the morning sports anchor for the Boomer and Carton Show and on 1010 WINS.

About Sal Licata:

Sal is a New York sports personality that can be seen weekly on SNY TV. He made a name for himself working at WFAN radio in New York for over seven years, hosting shows and working on the "Mike and the Mad Dog" show. Sal is in his second year of doing the color commentary for Columbia Football.

NEW FACES, NEW PLACES

Three new assistant coaches will patrol the sidelines and coaches box for the Lions this fall. Defensive coordinator Chris Woods is in his first season at Columbia, where he will also coach the linebackers. Bill Lund is Columbia's new defensive line coach and Mike Neuberger will mentor the Lions' tight ends.

ARCHIE ROBERTS, NFF DISTINGUISHED AMERICAN

In July, the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) announced that Dr. Archie Roberts, a prominent heart surgeon who played football at Columbia in the 1960s, has been named the 2011 recipient of the organization's Distinguished American Award. First bestowed in 1966, the NFF Distinguished American Award is presented on special occasions when a truly deserving candidate emerges. Roberts will become the 40th recipient of the award, joining an impressive list of previous honorees that includes Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Pete Rozelle, Joe Paterno, Pat Tillman, T. Boone Pickens and last year's honoree Tom Brokaw.

COLUMBIA FOOTBALL 2011

Columbia (0-7, 0-4) vs. Harvard (6-1, 4-0) • November 5, 2011 • gocolumbialions.com

Game 1 • Fordham 21, Columbia 14

In a game with eight sacks between the two teams, and outstanding defensive plays on both sides, it was Fordham's 100-yard interception for a touchdown that proved to be the key play of the game.

Columbia's defense put on a show of their own, holding Fordham scoreless after two trips inside Columbia's 30-yard line. Seyi Adebayo and Owen Fraser combined for a tackle for a loss and a big sack respectively on Fordham's second possession in the first quarter, which turned the ball over to Columbia on downs.

On the ensuing drive, Fordham's Andre Delaire picked off Columbia's Sean Brackett to the Columbia 20, but Fordham's first penalty pushed them back to the 30 for an illegal block in the back. This time it was Zach Olinger and Adebayo that combined to keep Fordham off the scoreboard. Adebayo sacked the Rams' freshman quarterback Peter Maetzold for a loss of nine yards on third and seven from the Columbia 14 yard line. Fordham attempted a 40-yard field goal that went wide right.

Columbia took advantage of a Fordham penalty to close the first quarter. Patrick Murray's punted from the Fordham 19 but the Rams were called for interference, which put the Lions on the Rams 33 yard line.

Brackett found Mike Stephens, one of two Columbia receivers to have over 100 yards receiving on the day, for a 19-yard gain and put the Lions on the Fordham 14. Two plays later, Brackett found Kurt Williams for the score. Williams also had more than 100 yards receiving on the day. Luke Eddy converted the PAT for the 7-0 lead.

After consecutive three and out series by both teams, Columbia's defense held the Rams scoreless after starting a drive on the Columbia 35. Neil Schuster, Mike Waller, Olinger, and A.J. Maddox combined for tackles on the drive. Josh Martin blocked the 41-yard field goal attempt to give Columbia the ball on its own 32.

The Lions pushed the ball down the field behind a combined 42-yards receiving by Stephens and some short gains on the ground by Brackett. On second and goal from the Fordham six, Brackett was sacked for a loss of seven but on the next play, Brackett used some tough moves and kept for 11 yards. On fourth and two, Nick Womack picked Brackett at the goal line and raced 100 yards to tie the game.

"We talked all week about limited unforced turnovers," Patricia and Shepard Alexander Head Coach of Football Norries Wilson said. "We didn't do that today, and we have a lot to work on before next week."

Fordham scored the go-ahead touchdown on its second possession of the third. Starting the drive on its own 35, Maetzold found Sam Ajala for a 60-yard touchdown score to go up 14-7 midway through the third quarter.

After Columbia drove down to the Fordham 18 and failed to convert a field goal, Fordham tacked on another score early in the fourth on five plays, which spanned 80 yards. Maetzold connected with Carlton Koonce for a 16-yard touchdown pass.

Columbia cut the lead to 21-14 late in the fourth when Brackett led the Lions 48 yards on nine plays, culminating in a 10-yard Brackett-to-Stephens touchdown pass.

Brackett finished 18-32-2 for 239 yards and two touchdowns. Stephens finished with a career-high 105 yards on eight catches and a touchdown. Williams totaled 104 yards on six catches and a score.

Maetzold was 22-30 for 212 yards and two touchdowns.

Columbia's defense, which played extremely well throughout the game, was led by Olinger who led all players with nine solo tackles and 12 total tackles, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Marin had six tackles, one sack and one tackle for a loss, while Adebayo added four tackles, which included one sack and three tackles for a loss. Healthy of for the first time in a year, Frasier had four tackles with a huge sack and a tackle for a loss.

Game 2 • Albany 44, Columbia 21

NEW YORK - Leading 24-14, Albany scored 20 unanswered points and defeated Columbia 44-21 in its home opener on a humid day at Robert K. Kraft Field.

Albany opened scoring in the first quarter when Drew Smith ran for a 41-yard touchdown. Columbia answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a Nick Gerst one-yard touchdown run.

Albany scored again to make it 14-7, when they drove 78 yards on 14 plays over a span of 5:18 in the second quarter. Omar Osbourne rushed for a 17-yard touchdown in the play that put Albany up for good.

The Great Danes took advantage of good field position when Columbia fumbled the snap for a punt and Albany took over on downs at their own 49. Four plays later, Albany took a 21-7 lead.

Trailing 24-7, Columbia started a drive with 12 seconds left at the Albany 49, when Alec Fisher returned a kickoff for 33 yards.

Sean Brackett found Mike Stephens for a 15-yard gain with just seven seconds remaining at the Albany 34. Brackett then threw up a last-second heave, which was intercepted by Albany's Kevin Chillis at the two, but Chillis was tackled and fumbled, when Columbia first-year Connor Nelligan picked up the ball and dove in for the score. With no time remaining, Luke Eddy hit the PAT to make it 24-14 at the break.

Albany went on to score three unanswered touchdowns in the third for the final 44-14 margin.

Albany totaled 446 yards of offense to Columbia's 328. Smith totaled a 155-yards rushing for the Great Danes, while Columbia totaled 117 yards total rushing.

Neil Schuster, Steven Grassa, Mike Murphy and Zach Olinger each had eight tackles to lead the Lions.

Game 3 • Princeton 24, Columbia 21

PRINCETON, N.J. - Princeton used 227 yards of rushing offense to defeat Columbia 24-21 at Princeton Stadium. The loss snaps Columbia's two-game win streak vs. the Tigers.

Princeton got on the board first, driving 61 yards on its first possession of the game for a field goal. Despite one fumble on Columbia's first drive, Columbia's defense helped put the Lions on the board when senior A.J. Maddox intercepted Princeton's Tommy Wornham and ran it back for his first career touchdown. When Luke Eddy converted the PAT, Columbia led 7-3.

Princeton took the lead for good when they capped off the first quarter with a seven-play drive for 74 yards. Wornham hit Mark Hayes for a five-yard touchdown pass to put the Tigers up 10-7.

Princeton scored on its first possession of the second half, highlighted by a 45-yard run by Chuck Dibilio on second and five from the Princeton 44. The Tigers scored three plays later to make it 17-7 Princeton.

Columbia came right back and scored two drives later, when Maddox recovered a fumble at the Princeton 47 and returned it to the Princeton 28. Sean Brackett needed just one play to find Paul Havas in the endzone to make it 17-14 midway through the third period.

After a couple of three-and-outs by both teams, Princeton pinned Columbia in its own five-yard line, and took advantage of the ensuing good field position after a Columbia punt. Princeton went 26 yards in five plays to make it 24-14, which was the score at the end of the period.

Columbia fought back and scored midway through the fourth, driving 85 yards in eight plays, culminating in a 29-yard pass to Hamilton Garner to make the score 21-24.

As the game wound down, Columbia got a huge stop, halting Princeton on fourth and two from the Columbia two yard line, with less than 30 seconds remaining, but Columbia's final drive came up short.

Ross Morand and Maddox had stellar games on defense. Maddox had 10 tackles, with a huge fumble recovery and an interception for a touchdown, while Morand led all players with 11 tackles.

Brackett threw for two touchdowns, passing Craig Hormann to be fifth on the all-time touchdown passes list with 28. Brackett needs one touchdown pass to tie Columbia greats Archie Roberts and Gene Rossides.

Columbia (0-7, 0-4) vs. Harvard (6-1, 4-0) • November 5, 2011 • gocolumbialions.com

Game 4 • Sacred Heart 34, Columbia 25

NEW YORK - Columbia led 13-6 late in the second quarter but Sacred Heart evened the score with 47 seconds left in the half and found the end zone on its first two drives of the second half to take a 27-13 lead. The Pioneers eventually held on for a 34-25 victory over the Lions on Robert K. Kraft Field behind 371 yards of passing and three touchdowns by Tim Little.

After Sacred Heart took an early 3-0 lead on a 32-yard field goal by Chris Rogers, Columbia's first play from scrimmage was a 20-yard gallop by Brackett to the Sacred Heart 35. The Lions eventually moved the ball to the 16-yard line and Marcus Garrett scored his first collegiate touchdown to put Columbia ahead 6-3 as Luke Eddy's extra point attempt went wide left.

Columbia's defense stuffed Sacred Heart on a fourth and one at the Lions' 11-yard line on the next possession after a 64-yard drive as Columbia regained possession on downs.

On Sacred Heart's next possession, the Columbia defense held strong again deep in its own territory. The Pioneers had first and goal on the five-yard line and Little completed a pass to Garry Coles that moved the ball to the one. After an incomplete pass on second down, Neil Schuster and Josh Martin stuffed Greg Moore on the one to bring up fourth down. Rogers then converted an 18-yard chip shot that tied the score at 6-6.

Later in the second quarter, Columbia was boosted by a 22-yard punt return by Alec Fisher that gave Columbia possession at the Sacred Heart 38. On third and one from the 29, Brackett dove ahead for the first down, then completed an 11-yard pass to Kurt Williams that moved the ball to the Sacred Heart 17. Brackett then rolled right and found Garner all alone in the back of the end zone to put the Lions on top, 13-6.

Sacred Heart got the ball back with 1:48 left and took advantage of good field position to start its drive at the Columbia 41. Little found Rich Rossi on a crossing pattern and Rossi scored the first of his two touchdowns, a 28-yard play, that tied the game at 13 heading into halftime.

The Pioneers forced a three and out on Columbia's first drive of the second half and then deflected Paul Delaney's punt that resulted in a net of three yards. Taking over at the Columbia 38, it took Sacred Heart just three plays to move ahead 20-13 on a one-yard plunge by Little.

Sacred Heart forced another three and out on the Lions' next possession and then completed a seven-play, 54-yard drive that ended on a pass from Little to Garry Coles for 27 yards that put the Pioneers up 27-13 midway through the third quarter.

Columbia responded on its next possession, started on an 18-yard run by Nick Gerst. The key play came on a 30-yard pass by Brackett to Williams that gave Columbia the ball at the nine-yard line. Two plays later, Gerst slipped through the line and scored from three yards out to bring the Lions within eight at 27-19 after Eddy's extra point was blocked.

The score remained that way at the start of the fourth quarter, when Sacred Heart gained possession at its 20-yard line. The Pioneers converted a pair of key third downs on the drive and Little found Rossi for the second time in the end zone, on a 12-yard play, to put the visitors ahead 34-19.

Columbia got closer with 2:34 to play when Brackett and Garner connected again on a 19-yard strike, but the Lions' point after try failed for the third time in the game, which remained a two-possession spread.

Game 5 • Penn 27, Columbia 20

NEW YORK - Columbia tied the game at 20-20 with 1:31 remaining in regulation but Penn took advantage of good field position to start its final drive and took five plays to go 56 yards to take a 27-20 lead with 25 seconds remaining as the Quakers came away with a seven-point victory on Columbia's Homecoming Day.

Columbia got on the board first late in the first quarter. The Lions began their drive at their own 39-yard line. With the ball on the Columbia 48, Lion quarterback Sean Brackett found Louis DiNovo over the middle for a long catch and run that went for 41 yards deep into Penn territory.

Luke Eddy then nailed a 31-yard field goal to give Columbia a 3-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

With 13:09 left in the second quarter, Penn started its drive on its 24-yard line. Greg Schuster carried on first and ten and was stripped of the ball by defensive back Kalasi Huggins who snatched the ball away in one motion and took it 11 yards down the field to put Columbia in position to score again.

Three plays later, Columbia punched it in the end zone when Marcorus Garrett scored for the second straight game, on a two-yard run to make it 10-0 Columbia.

Penn's Connor Loftus converted a 35-yard field goal midway through the second quarter and got the ball at its own 33-yard line with 1:30 left in the half down 10-3.

The Quakers quickly moved down the field and on third and goal from the eight, Billy Ragone passed to Ryan Calvert and Marquel Carter stopped Calvert a yard short of the goal line, leaving Penn to decide whether to kick a field goal or attempt a tying touchdown before the half ended.

With seven seconds left, Penn elected to go for it on fourth and goal and Ragone plunged into the end zone to ultimately tie the game 10-10 at halftime.

After deferring to receive in the second half, Columbia got the ball to begin the third quarter. After starting its drive on the 34-yard line, Sean Brackett completed two consecutive passes to DiNovo that moved the ball into Penn territory.

Brackett then found Kurt Williams on a post pattern that went for 31 yards, moving the ball to the 16-yard line. On the next play, Brackett executed a perfect option fake and found Hamilton Garner wide open down the middle to put Columbia back in front, 17-10.

Later in the third quarter, a Penn interception set up the Quakers near midfield. Penn moved into the red zone but the Columbia defense stiffened, setting up a 36-yard field goal by Loftus that cut the Columbia lead to 17-13.

After a Columbia three and out, Penn completed a nine-play, 82-yard drive that ended in a Brandon Colavita three-yard score. The touchdown gave Penn its first lead of the game, 20-17, with 10:57 remaining.

Columbia began its final scoring drive of the game on its 11-yard line with 6:06 remaining in the fourth quarter. Brackett completed three passes and rushed for 25 yards to put the ball at the Penn 35.

After three straight incomplete passes, Columbia had to go for it on fourth and 10 from the 35. After a Columbia timeout and then a Penn timeout, Brackett fired down the middle to find Williams, who made a terrific catch in traffic for a 24-yard gain.

With the ball at the Penn 11, Brackett rushed for seven yards down to the four-yard line. The Lions then committed three penalties and after two incomplete passes, were forced to try a 35-yard field goal with the wind in kicker Luke Eddy's face.

Eddy drilled the 35-yarder that split the uprights, tying the game at 20-20 as the spirited Homecoming crowd at Wien Stadium got even louder.

Penn then received a short kickoff at the 40-yard line and returned it back to its own 44. The Quakers' first play resulted in a pass interference call and Ragone then found Calvert for a six-yard gain. Ragone and Calvert connected again on the next play, a 26-yard strike down the middle that moved the ball to the Columbia 10.

On third and goal from the seven, Ragone called his own number and went into the end zone to put Penn ahead for good, 27-20.

Ragone passed for 185 yards and scored two touchdowns on the ground. Brackett passed for 218 yards and rushed for 38 yards.

Calvert caught eight balls for 105 yards while Williams made five grabs for 86 yards.

Game 6 • Dartmouth 37, Columbia 0

HANOVER, N.H. - In a game in which turnovers were the story, Columbia recovered a Dartmouth fumble on the opening kickoff but was unable to convert and the Big Green took over from that point.

Dartmouth running back Nick Schwieger rushed for 157 yards and three scores as the Big Green shutout the Lions 37-0 at Memorial Field on a cold, dry Saturday afternoon.

Dartmouth scored on Greg Patton's five-yard run with 8:19 left to play in the first quarter in a drive that went 12 plays and 70 yards. On the ensuing drive, a bad snap went over the head of Columbia punter Paul Delaney resulting in a safety to make it 9-0.

Dartmouth scored with six minutes remaining in the third to make it 16-0 at the break.

Columbia won the toss and opted to defer, so the Lions started the second half with the ball at the Columbia 24 yard line. Marcorus Garrett rushed for 18 yards on the first play of the half, but fumbled at the Columbia 42 yard line and Dartmouth recovered.

The turnover proved costly as Dartmouth scored on the ensuing drive, making it 23-0.

Dartmouth added two scores in the third quarter, one after another Columbia fumble, and the final after a Columbia interception.

Jerry Bell started at quarterback for the Lions, filling in for a hurt Sean Brackett. Garrett finished with 61 yards rushing, while Mike Stephens led the receivers with 35 yards on four catches.

Nick Mistretta led all plays with 11 tackles and an interception, while A.J. Maddox added ten with 1.5 tackles for a loss.

Game 7 • Yale 16, Columbia 13

NEW YORK -- In a driving snow storm at Robert K. Kraft Field at Lawrence A. Wien Stadium, Yale built a 16-0 fourth-quarter lead and withstood a furious comeback by the Columbia football team to take a 16-13 win on Saturday afternoon.

Junior quarterback Sean Brackett tossed for a pair of touchdowns, including a four-yard pass to senior Mike Stephens that pulled the Lions to within a field goal with 4:04 remaining in the fourth quarter.

After Yale drove to Columbia's 20-yard line on the ensuing possession, the Lion defense forced a turnover on downs with a little more than two minutes left in the contest.

But Columbia's last-ditch effort would fall short as Brackett's fourth-down pass with just under a minute remaining was intercepted by Nick Okano to seal the Bulldog victory.

After a scoreless first quarter as the snow got heavier, Yale's Phillippe Panico booted a 38-yard field goal with the wind at his back to give the Bulldogs a 3-0 edge.

The score remained 3-0 at halftime and Yale made it 10-0 on its first possession of the second half. Mordecai Cargill rushed four straight times for 15 yards and converted a key fourth and two with a three yard run that moved the ball to the Columbia 19.

On the next play, Cargill chugged 19 yards into the end zone to give the Bulldogs a 10-point advantage.

Yale made it 16-0 early in the fourth quarter when Cargill ran it in from four yards out. Chris Groth blocked the ensuing extra point and it remained a two-possession game with 12:03 left in the game.

Columbia received the next kickoff at its own 41-yard line and sophomore Griffin Lowry ran 11 yards on two carries to move the ball into Yale territory.

On third and one from the 26, Sean Brackett converted a beautiful play-action fake and fired a 26-yard strike to Zack McKown, who found the end zone to get the Lions on the board. Columbia's two-point conversion was no good and the Lions trailed 16-6 at the 8:51 mark.

With five and a half minutes left, Paul Delaney unleashed a punt with the wind at his back that rolled down to the five-yard line. Gio Christodoulou muffed the return deep in Yale territory and Mike Murphy pounced on the fumble to give the Lions possession at the Yale five-yard line.

Three plays later, Brackett found Stephens from four yards out to cut the deficit to three.

Yale churned out 276 rushing yards on the day, including 230 by junior running back Mordecai Cargill. Defensively, senior Neil Schuster was all over the field for the Lions and finished with nine tackles and three pass breakups.

Patricia and Shepard Alexander Head Coach of Football NORRIES WILSON

Norries Wilson begins his sixth year as Columbia's Patricia and Shepard Alexander Head Coach of Football after the Lions posted four or more wins in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1997-98.

Wilson, one of the top assistant coaches in the nation while at the University of Connecticut, became Columbia's 18th head coach of football in December 2005.

Wilson's student-athletes have earned 28 All-Ivy League honors since 2006, including two Rookies of the Year and 11 first-team selections.

After a 4-6, 2-5 Ivy League season in 2010, Columbia had a total of eight student-athletes named All-Ivy League in football, the second most in school history. Among the eight, five (Sean Brackett, Alex Gross, Andrew Kennedy, Calvin Otis, and Jeff Adams) were named to the first team, the most since 1994.

Brackett became Columbia's first quarterback since Jamie Schwalbe (1994) to be named first team All-Ivy League.

In 2009, Wilson led Columbia to a fourth-place finish in the Ivy League, the Lions' best league finish in six years. Columbia also posted its most wins in six years. Eight Columbians were named to the All-Ivy League team, including defensive end Lou Miller, a unanimous first team selection, along with fellow first-teamers Austin Knowlin (wide receiver) and Jeff Adams (offensive lineman).

Wilson, who served as offensive coordinator at UConn for four seasons, was one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2004, a season in which the Huskies led the Big East in both total and scoring offense. In 2003, he guided UConn's offense that posted 477.5 yards per game, which ranked eighth in the nation.

In 2002, Wilson was promoted to the Huskies' offensive coordinator after joining the UConn staff in 1999 as offensive line coach. He continued to work specifically with the Huskies' centers and guards. In 2004, UConn defeated Toledo to win the Motor City Bowl. Three members of that team's offense went on to sign National Football League contracts.

Prior to the 2004 season, Wilson was one of 12 coaches selected to participate in the NCAA Expert Coaching Program. The program is designed to teach and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in NCAA head coaching positions at the Division I-A level.

Before UConn, Wilson spent four seasons at Bucknell. He was the Bison's offensive line coach in 1995 and 1996 before a promotion to offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998. He was also defensive coordinator at Livingstone College (1993), offensive line/tight ends coach at North Carolina Central (1991-92) and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota (1989-90).

Wilson was a captain and two-year starter for the Gophers. In 1985, the team defeated Clemson to win the Independence Bowl and competed in the Liberty Bowl vs. Tennessee the following year. He was a three-year letterwinner in football, and earned two letters and qualified for the NCAA Championships as a heavyweight in wrestling. He graduated from Minnesota in 1989 with a degree in psychology.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Wilson has served minority coaching fellowships in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs (1992), the Jacksonville Jaguars (1995) and the Indianapolis Colts (2000).

A native of Markham Ill., where he attended Thornwood High School, Wilson is married to the former Brenda Marquis, who played forward on UConn's first women's basketball national championship team. The couple has three children: a son, Cecil, and two daughters, Trinity and Sahara.
